The bio of author Jasmin Hajro, nice to meet you

Hello dear reader, how are you ?
Thank you for buying my book.

My name is Jasmin Hajro,
I was born on July 6, 1985 in Bosnia.
As refugees, we came to the Netherlands 21 years ago.
After having completed school & worked at several jobs ...

On 17 December 2012, I founded my first company:

investment firm Jasko.

After a successful first year, I unfortunately had to close that company.
After a short period of rest, unemployment and temporary work. I started again as an entrepreneur.

On September 1, 2015, I founded establishment Hajro.

(We say establishment instead of company,
because we do a bit more than just sell stuff.
Like providing jobs,
donating to 40 different charities,
and helping people to live richer.)

Since the beginning the core activity is, selling sets of greeting cards, door to door.
Nowadays the product range has been expanded.

With, among other things, the selling of my 12 books.

The royalties of my books are donated to the charity:
foundation Giveth Life.

From there more than 40 other charities receive donations.
And by buying this book you support more than 40 charities.
Thank you.

My company is now part of Hajro Group, which consists of 19 different subsidiaries,
that are part of 1 umbrella organization :
Called Energy Now. (Energie Nu)

Overcoming tough times

What are tough times?
Isn't that different for everyone?

Perhaps something like tiring times.

Times that make you tired.

I worked in a tapas restaurant in Arnhem, called Ramblas.

The food was delicious,
but I wanted to do something else,
then work in the dishes and the kitchen.

I started a home study for Wft basic Advisor,
when I worked in that restaurant.
In the evening at home I heard that my uncle Ibro, who lives in Bosnia, had died.

Things were finally going the right way.
I finally had work and earned money,
could pay my bills.
And reduce my debts.

Well then that bad news came.

It was as if all energy went out of me.

I have very happy memories of my childhood in Bosnia.

My family is part of my happy memories.

Someone once asked me what I was missing?
Because I had almost no contact with my uncle.

Apparently, those things go like that,
contacts & connections fade

Especially if you live far away from each other.

What I missed was his humor,
it always feels good and joyous when I was there.
And going to Bosnia on vacation is no longer the same, because the people you go for no longer exist.

I have thought about it...
Because I have already written 11 books.
The one you are reading now is the first part of my new series:
Work to shine.

What kind of book would be good for many people?
What kind of book would be helpful to many people?

What should be in it, what would it have to give to readers?

Even if it is only recognition, periods I went through & that they are going through.
That they can relate to.
To know that you can get through anything.
No matter how painful it is and no matter how bad it seems, at the moment.

Or comfort.

Maybe relativation, to attenuate their troubles and their situation &
see them in the right perspective.
They're just like a threshold on the road,
that you really will get over.

To be honest, I do not want to write this book.
I do not feel like writing it.
I really had to force myself , to sit down &
start writing.

It is Sunday for God's sake.
July 1st
A new month started,
it is beautiful sunny weather outside.

I got up before noon, for once.

Yeah, for some miraculous reasons,
I am almost 33 years old and I still struggle to get up in the morning on time.

So what does this Workaholic do?
On such a nice Sunday?

Starting on a new book series & writing a book that he actually does not want to write.

Well if you've read my book Victory,
then you know that one time in Bosnia
when I was a little boy
I had to sit nude in front of the house. As a punishment.

Because of those kind of fokking things,
I did not really want to write this book.

Anyway,
I have already started

So what's in it for you, to know what kind of extreme punishment I received?

Well, whatever is bothering you,
no matter what kind of tough time you're going through now.
Ans no matter how difficult it may be for you ...

You will never have to sit naked in front of your house,
as a punishment.

You see,
your situation is not that bad.

(That is relativizing, that is to say relativation or taking the edge off it)

Perhaps there is a better translation ?

But you know what I meant, right ?

Let's go back to Uncle Ibro for a moment,
he left behind a wife and two daughters.

I'm just very sorry that I did not do something for him,
when it was still possible.

I live in a country where I have much more possibilities,
then they have in Bosnia.

I would have liked to send him money every month
And have visited them every year, or a number of times a year.
Sent them gifts and spent more time with them.

I would have liked him to get to know my great company & to show him my 11 books which are for sale in 190 countries worldwide...
And the good foundation that I founded.

But that is not possible anymore,
Uncle Ibro is deceased

People of gold

For me that was Grandpa Vejsil and Grandma Ziba.
They too lived in Bosnia.
Grandma and step grandpa actually.

Maybe because they have more experience with parenting,
then my parents.
Or because I never got a beating from them.

It was always great fun with grandpa and grandma.

A lot thanks to her

My father's oldest sister, Aunt Rahima.

Thanks to her, we were able to go to the Netherlands.

To get away from the war.

I owe a lot to her.

In a short period of time

In the period of time, that Uncle Ibro died,
I went to work
& then back home again.

I had enough of it and I left.

In that period,
that lasted perhaps a half year or 1 year.

Aunt Rahima died of cancer,
Grandma Ziba died.

I went to Bosnia and there
I have carried her coffin for a while.

There was a long line of people and the coffin was passed on.
All the way to the grave.

We had a friend of my mother
in our neighborhood: called Ria.

She drank a little too much and had a strange fear : she was afraid to walk up the stairs.

It was nice with her, when she came to visit.

She also died of cancer.

In that short period of time.

And then I heard that Grandpa Vejsil
also had died.

A while before, grandmother and grandmother had already split up.

But still.

That was 5 people in a short period of time.

At that time we received many letters from collection agencies and bailiffs.

Our bills that they doubled the amounts that we had to pay and that was all according to the law.

Yah Yah.

They are legitimate thieves.

So I was very angry and sad then.

Very very angry. Warlike angry.

And sad.

As you understand,
I would have liked to have done something more for them.
Spent more time with them.
Have given them more.

And I would loved to show them,
how far I have come.

From being 1 night homeless, to writing 11 books & publishing them in 190 countries worldwide
Plus a good foundation &
a company with 16 subsidiaries.

But now it's too late for that.
They are dead.

I stopped using drugs,
after I had taken too much,
and ended up in a coma.

Well if you use yourself or know someone who does that ..
And if you see it as a waste of potential & want to be clean or help someone else to become it.

Then it might be good to know,
what I did afterwards.

That was just as important.

I decided, of course, not to do it anymore.

I could not do it anymore.

I think I got an anxiety attack,
when I tried to smoke a blunt.

Because I was shaking,
and wondered if I was going to get a heart attack.

What I did after ...

No more buying that stuff.

Stopped dealing with people who use it.

Yes, I was at home a lot and it was shitty,
but it was better.

I started to become more fanatic with my chess hobby and kept myself busy with it.

I went for walks.

I thought of people who used as LOSERS

I once collapsed and fell to the ground, and after that I stopped drinking alcohol.

What I did after ...
Was not going to the pub anymore.
Didn't go out to clubs anymore.
Drank a lot of tea and coffee.

Went hiking.

I read.
Listened to audiobooks and watched motivational videos
on youtube.

I wrote.

I didn't go anymore to places and people where alcohol was consumed.

Yes I was a lot of times at home, like a hermit.

But it was better.

Bills and debts

See bills and debts not like a burden,
but as responsibilities.

And people who still have to receive money from you,
are people who trusted you or have faith in you.

And for that kind of people you are going to make things right.
No matter how much time it takes you.

Put all your bills in 1 folder and put that thing out of sight,
in a drawer or something.

Emplane some cash money around you in your house.

And focus on earning money,
stash money,
and take care of your responsibilities.

Aging sucks

It sucks, right?

Every year, you become a year older.

I thought so too.
And I especially disliked to become 30 years old.
Because I had heard or thought that after your thirtieth year

you start to decline.
That everything is going to decay and won't function well.

And I thought about, when I become 80 years old,
and nothing functions anymore to kill myself one way or another.

Until someone said:
The older you get the better it is

And that is the mighty fokking truth, as far as aging is concerned.

Some children do not even become 10 years old.

Some people don't even become 18 years old.

But you are 30 or 40 or 50 years and having another birthday & you can live for another year.

How a great gift is that ...
You can do and experience so much. And enjoy.
Be happy
The older you get, the better it is.

The Better thing

Failing and falling on your face is good for you.
And also is rejection.

Because then the Better thing comes on your path.

I had a solution for the banks,
neatly typed out and ready.
They did not want it.

A while after that,
out of my solution I made a book.
book the Lifebuoy for banks
" loyal banking "
(de Reddingsboei voor banken"loyaal bankieren")
The Better thing

I applied for a social welfare for the 2nd time.
It was rejected.

I walked home,
and then wrote my 3rd book:
book Recipe for Happiness
the Better thing

That is how it will work out for you too.
Do not despair. Work towards your goals and dreams.
The Better thing is coming

a Doing book

Well, as you might already know in the meantime
I write short books.

And Non fiction.
Simply facts and life experiences.

With often things in them that you can do, or must do.

Actions you can perform,
so that you get results.

You probably already understand that by just thinking about 10 euros/dollars, the 10 dollar will not manifest in your pocket.

But if you do something.
Like working for a while.
Then you will receive the 10 dollar.

I would love to recommend to you my book Recipe for Happiness
(Also a Doing book)

It contains tips and advice that you can easily do &
that help you to have less stress.
To be happier and healthier.

And also help you a bit to overcome difficult times.

Count on one hand

That night on the street is actually the best thing that has happened to me.

It has put pepper in my ass,

to go to work hard.
And to get more out of myself.

It has also taught me,
that very few people are always there for you.
You can count them on one hand.

Whatever you did,
and however you have behaved.
They are still there for you.

These rare few could be your mom and dad.

Thank them,
appreciate them.

Make some sunshine for them &
make them proud.

Well you now also know with which people you should spend your time. And not with others.

And that

What I did after I stopped taking drugs and drinking alcohol was also ...
Working

They were not always the nicest jobs.

But work has really changed my life.

That it will do for you too.

Work is your best friend,
you can always count on it.
You can always 'borrow' money from that friend
after you have worked.

Quote : " Work is the best therapy."
By Doctor Maxwell Maltz

So if you don't believe me, believe the doctor.

Those meager months

And what about those months when you only earned a few bucks?

I will become a millionaire or die working towards it.

So about really fokking great.

My Victorious series of 10 books &
Another one,
show you:

That if you really want something,
then you can do it too.

No matter what & Whatever they say.

That obvious recipe

It goes something like this:

Write down what you want to achieve in life

Learn, Work & Persist until you realize it

About the same process as getting your driver's license.

Or cooking a meal.

Or getting your diploma.

Or writing a booklet.

Save a part of your money & donate something to charities.

Keep reading, listening to audiobooks and developing yourself. Keep growing.

Learn the 80/20 principle,
so that you will only do the most important things,
that give you the most results.

Then you will feel better about yourself & that also helps you get thru tough times.

Learn that it does not matter what people say.

To achieve the things you want in your life,
the only thing that matters is : what you think and what you DO

If you experience this as a valuable book, would you please be so kind to recommend it to the people that you know.

So that it helps them too with overcoming tough times.

Thank you.

Extra page

After failing with my first company.

I founded a new and better one.

After my burnout, that cost me 2 months of time

I picked myself up, and became active again.

I started working (selling), writing, jogging and kept going again.

If I can recover & overcome, so can You.

You are designed tougher than tough times.

I wish for you a lot of strenght &
the best things in life.

Kind regards,
Jasmin Hajro

P.S. If you want to share your experience with my book, send me a little review or email at
